at bonneville record holders must first earn the right to present themselves on the starting line this requires passing rigorous safety and technical checks for driver rider and speed machine gender is inconsequential through the years more than 200 women have made the cut and donned fireproof clothing and helmets dozens have set land speed records 35 in excess of 200 miles per hour six above 300 miles per hour and one deaf female racer who roared past 500 miles per hour equally impressive are the women who helped propel the helmeted gals into glory few know how many women are skilled fabricators mechanics crew chiefs and all round land speed racing experts all working out on a brutal merciless and barren sodium soaked playa and for decades dedicated volunteers have not only put down that all important starting line but erected a speed village that inspired tens of thousands to visit taunting the timing lights run after run since 1949 women have played an integral part without question land speed racing has more women actively participating and setting records than any other segment of motorsports in the world as this book explains the japanese did not suddenly become proficient in the design and development of motorcycles when they first appeared in europe at the end of the 1950s instead the japanese had been involved with motorcycles since the beginning of the 20th century true early japanese motorcycles copied western design a trend that continued for several years after wwii but soon they designed a succession of highly innovative machinery not only to the grand prix world s benefit but to the paying over the counter customer too honda kawasaki suzuki and yamaha plus bridgestone and tohatsu have all built and sold racing motorcycles which the public could also buy and enjoy
