what will be the future of germany will germany remain a soft power pursuing a bind me love me policy or will we see a new germany signalling strength and power based on nationalism and german identity the book written by well known german british french russian danish and american scholars attempts to present contrasting analyses on different levels of the general political dimension and position of the united germany in europe

this authoritative timely and comprehensively referenced compendium on the bacteriophages explores current views of how viruses infect bacteria in combination with classical phage molecular genetics new structural genomic and single molecule technologies have rendered an explosion in our knowledge of phages bacteriophages the most abundant and genetically diverse type of organism in the biosphere were discovered at the beginning of the 20th century and enjoyed decades of use as anti bacterial agents before being eclipsed by the antibiotic era since 1988 phages have come back into the spotlight as major factors in pathogenesis bacterial evolution and ecology this book reveals their compelling elegance of function and their almost inconceivable diversity much of the founding work in molecular biology and structural biology was done on bacteriophages these are widely used in molecular biology research and in biotechnology as probes and markers and in the popular method of assessing gene expression the iranian revolution of 1978 1979 and its transformation into an islamic revolution has been an object of study the last couple of decades the book does not attempt to explain the revolution and the theocracy it resulted in but takes interest in the modes of thought world views that preceded the revolution in order to understand the cultural context in which the revolution happened however only a limited part of the iranian culture is studied namely the literary part more precisely five of the leading shortstory writers seyed mohammad al jamalzadeh sadeq hedayat sadeq chubak jamal al le ahmad and hu ang gol hiri the analyses of the short stories show that the underlying world views are strictly secular as a contextualisation of the literary works four iranian thinkers and ideologists jamal al din afghani 1838 1897 ahmad kasravi 1890 1946 seyed hoseyn nasr b 1933 and ali hariati 1933 1977 are presented with seyed hoseyn nasr as an exception the study of the world views of these four shows a development towards secular modes of thought this book presents the state of the art of international relations theory through an analysis of the work of twelve key contemporary thinkers john vincent kenneth waltz robert o keohane robert gilpin bertrand badie john ruggie hayward alker nicholas g onuf alexander wendt jean bethke elshtain r b j walker and james der derian the authors aim to break with the usual procedure in the field which juxtaposes aspects of the work of contemporary theorists with others presenting them as part of a disembodied school of thought or paradigm a more individual focus can demonstrate instead the well rounded character of some of the leading oeuvres and can thus offer a more representative view of the discipline this book is designed to cover the work of theorists whom students of international relations will read and sometimes struggle with the essays can be read either as introductions to the work of these theorists or as companions to it each chapter attempts to place the thinker in the landscape of the discipline to identify how they go about studying international relations and to discuss what others can learn from them
