excerpt from How to Face Peace a handbook of community programs fragments of the future patched into a narrative are usually suggestive reading at least particularly when these fragments are borne out by chronicles although we have been reconstructing for some time fragments of the future and chronicles of the war have both been necessary for the purpose of this little book since not too much is generally known about the reconstruction readjusting restoration whatever you call it that is upon us it has seemed pertinent to collect what materials could be found which outlined or indicated the programs necessary to initiate in order to help communities and individuals to find their places in the big constructive work before the nation prophesying is not so safe as chronicling but what might be called propheteering is less dull than writing 5 accounts after the fact and to propheteer a little it seems unquestionable that the great spirit of public service evoked by the war must carry over into a desire for permanent and somewhat altruistic effort about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works this handbook is written for people involved in community development community capacity building and partnerships at community level community development is a process to support and build community capacity
