a challenging new look at the great thinkers whose ideas have shaped our civilization from socrates to sartre presents a rousing and readable introduction to the lives and times of the great philosophers this thought provoking book takes us from the inception of western society in plato's athens to today when the commanding power of marxism has captured one third of the world t z lavine elton professor of philosophy at george washington university makes philosophy come alive with astonishing clarity to give us a deeper more meaningful understanding of ourselves and our times from socrates to sartre discusses western philosophers in terms of the historical and intellectual environment which influenced them and it connects their lasting ideas to the public and private choices we face in america today from socrates to sartre formed the basis of from the pbs television series of the same name this book is addressed to the beginning student of philosophy to the student in other disciplines who needs a concise presentation of philosophical ideas and to interested members of the general reading public the needs of these groups have promoted me to undertake the task in spite of the obvious pitfalls encountered in condensing the wealth of western philosophical thought into one short volume presenting a historically organized introduction to philosophy this work provides the student with a working knowledge of the development of western philosophy it covers various periods of philosophy lists philosophers alphabetically and chronologically on the end papers and features a glossary of key concepts this book is one of a series of socratic explorations of some of the great books the books in this series are intended to be short clear and non technical thus fully understandable by beginners through such socratic dialogues peter kreeft introduces or reviews the basic questions in the fundamental divisions of philosophy metaphysics epistemology anthropology ethics logic and method in socrates meets sartre kreeft takes the reader through the world of existentialist philosophy posing questions that challenge the concepts that sartre proposed based on an imaginary dialogue between socrates and sartre that takes place in the afterlife this profound and witty book makes an entertaining and informative exploration of modern philosophy this comprehensive historically organized introduction to philosophy communicates the richness of the discipline and provides the student with a working knowledge of the development of western philosophy with a lively and approachable style it covers the principal contributions of western civilization s most influential philosophers it provides ample detail without complicating minutiae the text covers all periods of philosophy lists philosophers alphabetically and chronologically on the end papers and features an exceptional glossary of key concepts in the socrates meets series peter kreeft revives the classic method of bringing philosophy to life through dialogue in eight innovative volumes he uncovers the principles assumptions and sometimes dangerous conclusions of some of history s most influential minds each dialogue imagines a purgatory where we can listen in on conversations between socrates and the great thinkers who centuries later picked up the philosopher s torch each conversation investigates one of the philosopher s key works a short readable classic that raises central questions both for philosophy and for life in this volume socrates cross examines jean paul sartre the father of existentialism and author of existentialism and human emotions exploring human identity atheism morality and meaning this is a new introduction to sartre guiding the student through the key concepts on his work by examining the overall development of his ideas jean paul sartre is widely regarded as one of the most important and influential philosophers and writers of the twentieth century his enduring influence in philosophy and literature is immense and his contributions to theories of human freedom and responsibility creative agency existence bad faith and good faith human possibility anguish and authenticity the self morality and the problems of evil and injustice fascinate students scholars and general readers alike starting with sartre provides an accessible introduction to the life and work of this hugely significant thinker clearly structured according to sartre s central ideas the book leads the reader through a thorough overview of the development of his thought resulting in a more thorough understanding of the roots of his philosophical concerns crucially it also introduces the major philosophical thinkers whose work proved influential in the development of his thought including plato descartes kant hegel kierkegaard nietzsche heidegger husserl and freud this is the ideal introduction for anyone coming to the work of this challenging thinker for the first time continuum s starting with series offers clear concise and accessible introductions to the key thinkers in philosophy the books explore and illuminate the roots of each philosopher s work and ideas leading readers to a thorough understanding of the key influences and philosophical foundations from which his or her thought developed ideal for first year students starting out in philosophy the series will serve as the ideal companion to study of this fascinating subject this useful and richly informative book will inspire and motivate readers to appreciate the importance and relevance of philosophy in their everyday lives a user friendly format provides detailed content coverage and critical reasoning skills development its applied focus pays attention to the personal and practical relevance of philosophy by focusing on its experiential therapeutic and social applications complemented by a built in study guide and substantial excerpts from classical original sourceworks six chapters cover what philosophy is philosophies of life logic and philosophical method epistemology and metaphysics ethics and political philosophy for individuals new to and interested in the study of philosophy in seven pioneering dialogues bert van roermund resumes the conversations he has had over the last twenty five years on reconciliation after political oppression questions of time are predominant here how does memory relate to both past and future can one be a victim and perpetrator at the same time is reconciliation ultimately based on an original bond among humans that enables survivors to forgive their former oppressors does this entail a betrayal of past sufferings
