this is an account of the military political and personal life of Abdul Haris Nasution who was a seminal figure in modern Indonesian history in the years prior to his effective sidelining in the 1960s he was an important commander during Indonesia's struggle for independence who rose to become a key leader of the Indonesian armed forces under the first president Sukarno perhaps more significantly he developed ideas about guerrilla warfare that developed into a sophisticated and socially conservative doctrine for the mobilising of civilian communities this in turn became the underpinning of the repressive military backed new order regime of Indonesia's second president Suharto who ruled from 1966 until 1998 and which Nasution initially supported understanding Nasution's thinking about total people's resistance is therefore very important for understanding the broader trajectory of Indonesian political history that includes both the new order and the emerging democratic regime that developed after its collapse the new political system that called itself the reform era was in many ways a direct reaction to the new order military's penetration and close control of Indonesian society but it has never dismantled the shadow state structure of the armed forces that Nasution designed and Suharto perfected in other words as this book shows Nasution's legacy still looms large today in Jokowi's Indonesia this is not the first assessment of Nasution's life but it differs from earlier works by its investigation of Nasution

s personal life and in particular his relationship with the well off and well connected gondokusumo family of which he became a member by his marriage to johana sunarti gondokusumo the author s thorough investigation of nasution s relationship with sunarti and her father offers important new insights into how nasution s ideas evolved as does the translations of important extracts from nasution s own voluminous writing included in the text perhaps we shall never know the truth about indonesia s failed supposedly communist coup of 1965 this book analyzes indonesian literature produced during the new order period that deals with the events of 1965 1966 and its consequences this updated edition examines the rise of fundamentalist islam in indonesia and asks why the country s democratic aspirations have yet to be realized rather than a history of the war and occupation of indonesia during the years 1942 1945 representing the japanese occupation of indonesia offers a survey of the way in which indonesia japan and the netherlands have shaped the memory of that episode comparison of the memories in the three countries brings out the national patterns of memory this volume gives an impression of the layered and pluriform nature of memory and of the different forms of expression of memory from the most personal level of oral testimony to the most public representation in monuments and films on indonesian language and literature papers of a seminar encyclopedia of modern indonesian literature encyclopedia of prominent indonesian authors and literature critics on umar kayam a prominent indonesian writer and his works in this volume anthropologists and sociologists address the issue of changing forms of local social security in indonesia pointing to increasingly exclusivist tendencies that leave the poor and weak out it provides rich data from cases studies in urban and rural java
