newbery honor author rodman philbrick sends readers rushing down a raging river on a life or death adventure when a white water rafting trip goes terribly wrong daniel redmayne is fast asleep on the first night of a white water rafting trip when he s awoken by screams the dam has failed the river is surging and their camp will be under water in a matter of moments as the

shrieking roar of the river rushes closer the kids scramble to higher ground they make it their counselors do not now they re on their own with barely any food or supplies in the middle of the montana wilderness do daniel and his four classmates have what it takes to stay alive until they can get rescued alone in the wild they forge powerful bonds but develop dangerous disagreements if nature doesn t break them they might just destroy each other this gripping survival story from the newbery honor author of wildfire is filled with adrenaline pumping adventure and moments of true bravery

we hold a great affection for the deep tradition of american storytelling the ability to spin a yarn that can hold our attention and provide a gentle direction for life is something that has been with us for a long time the celebrated jumping frog of calaveras county by mark twain or ernest hemingway s nick adams stories hold us with their gentle wit and carry us away for just a little while in outdoor chronicles jerry hamza takes up the gauntlet of the storyteller to take readers away for a little fun there are already plenty of how to fishing and outdoor books and this is not one hamza s stories will not make you a better caster or shooter but they will make you want to spend more time fishing or hunting this book is a collection of outdoor stories wrapped in the human condition they were written with an eye toward honesty and cynicism they will make you laugh out loud and you will want to carry them with you wherever you go if this book goes missing it s a sure thing that when you do find it it will be in the possession of a member of your household regardless of their interest in casting a fly the stories cover the gamut from a fishing trip to northern canada to a little stream that was actually better than remembered to how the baby boomers almost trampled a sport to death to a solitary trek along railroad tracks during a cold dark and dreary february and many more skyhorse publishing is proud to publish a broad range of books for hunters and firearms enthusiasts we publish books about shotguns rifles handguns target shooting gun collecting self defense archery ammunition knives gunsmithing gun repair and wilderness survival we publish books on deer hunting big game hunting small game hunting wing shooting turkey hunting deer stands duck blinds bowhunting wing shooting hunting dogs and more while not every title we publish becomes a new york times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home a sportsman s library the 100 books that every hunter and fisherman should own will consist of 100 short reviews for lack of a better word each one from 300 to 1500 words and illustrated with either the cover of the book or a photo of the book s author the list will include all the beloved classics but will add plenty of lesser known titles as well it will range in time from izaak walton s 17th century to 21st century tiger poachers in eastern siberia and geographically from the catskills to the keys from england s chalk streams to jim corbett s india it will take pleasure in those books that explain the intricate beauty of the classic salmon fly as well the astonishing craftsmanship of a best london double the science of the hunt as well as the hunt s depiction in art the author presents a collection of travel and adventure stories including a chronicle of a whitewater rafting trip in idaho s selway river and mountaineering in washington state and borneo this work written by jim sangster is a step by step companion to the work of film maker martin scorsese a philip k dick award nominee the novel is as tense and thrilling as any of brown s work and as full of rage and hope it s a novel that truly reckons with the enormity of both our climate emergency and the system that produced it a tale of human imperfection and redemption cory doctorow bestselling author of walkaway in this second dystopian legal thriller from the author of the acclaimed rule of capture and tropic of kansas lawyer donny kimoe juggles two intertwined cases whose outcomes will determine the course of america s future and his own in the aftermath of a second american revolution peace rests on a fragile truce the old regime has been deposed but the ex president has vanished escaping justice for his crimes some believe he is dead others fear he is in hiding gathering forces as the factions in washington work to restore order donny kimoe is in court to settle old scores and pay his own debts come due meanwhile the rebels donny once defended are exacting their own kind of justice in the ruins of new orleans they are building a green utopia and kidnapping their defeated adversaries to pay for it the newest hostage is the young heiress to a fortune made from plundering the country and the daughter of one of donny s oldest friends in a desperate gambit to save his own skin donny switches sides to defend her before the show trial if he fails so will the truce dragging the country back into violence but by taking the case he risks his last chance to expose the atrocities of the dictatorship and being tried for his own crimes against the revolution to save the future donny has to gamble his own the only way out is to find the evidence that will get both sides back to the table and secure a more lasting peace to do that donny must betray his clients secrets including one explosive secret hidden in the ruins the discovery of which could extinguish the last hope for a better tomorrow or if donny plays it right keep it burning
