michael s sherwin however the contrary is in fact the case by knowledge and by love represents a major contribution to thomistic moral theology and philosophy by providing a thoughtful examination of aquinas psychology of action and his theology of charity through a comprehensive analysis of the relation between intellect and will knowledge and love and charity and the infused intellectual virtues sherwin concludes that far from divorcing the will from reason aquinas in his later works integrates reason and will more closely together saint augustine says no one can love what he does not know this dynamic in the gift of charity which depends on faith s knowledge and on the knowledge provided by the other infused cognitive virtues and gifts charity is a virtue and like any virtue its acts require some knowledge of their object sherwin argues that not only is this a faithful reading of aquinas it also has profound implications for any conception of moral development the role of a mentoring community the characteristics of friendship with god and the specific actions required by love all play a part in sherwin s analysis
