Ombudsman

part of butterworths law in context series this is a description and evaluation of the uk public sector ombudsman system focusing on the parliamentary health service and local government ombudsmen in england it also covers the public sector ombudsmen in scotland wales and northern ireland this publication contains an article by dr richard kirkham lecturer in the school of law at sheffield university on the history of the post of parliamentary ombudsman to mark the 40th anniversary of its establishment together with a foreword written by the current postholder ann abraham the paper discusses the origins of the office and its creation through the parliamentary commissioner act 1967 as well as its existing and future role the changing landscape of the administrative justice system and possible amendments to office s powers the paper concludes that a few required amendments aside the parliamentary commissioner act remains a good piece of legislation and the constitution is much stronger for the parliamentary ombudsman as well as improving the power of the citizen to gain redress as was originally intended parliament itself has gained a valuable tool in the ongoing process of calling the government to account this study offers an analysis of the historical antecedents and a criticism of the contemporary institution of the ombudsman in nigeria this work should appeal to scholars interested in african studies legal studies and political science of the british colonial administration after gaining independence from british colonial rule the government did not deviate from the established practice of the colonial administration in relation to the protection of the rights of the citizens the only available channel for citizens to challenge arbitrary and capricious action of administrative officials is the ordinary courts of law justice in administrative areas under this arrangement often seems slow and wanting therefore the military government instituted a commission of enquiry to analyze and find ways to improve the situation which recommended the establishment of the institution of the ombudsman enhance the impact of the fcc on grievance resolution the fcc must become autonomous from the civil service structure and provisions must be made to increase the legal powers and jurisdictional competence of the fcc a vigorous publicity campaign must be mounted to keep the public abreast of the functions of the fcc a team of competent aggressive and enterprising personnel must be attracted to the fcc to enhance efficiency and professionalism
